

Cardiovascular System - heart, blood and blood vessels

The circulatory system is a closed network of capillaries, arteries and veins through which blood travels, distributing oxygen to and carrying carbon dioxide away from the cells.

